

Teen Leadership Training 2019

The annual Arkansas-Louisiana Conference Teen Leadership Training Conference is scheduled for the weekend of October 4-6, 2019 at Camp Yorktown Bay in Mountain Pine, AR. Registration is open to any and all teens ages 13-19 years who wish to build their leadership skills.

During this year's event, "Balancing Act," teens will take an in-depth look at the doing and being side of leadership. Teens will participate in fast-paced breakout sessions, discussion groups, workshops, and team building experiences that are designed to challenge and motivate teens to do great things for God.

"Be very careful, then, how you live - not as unwise but as wise."
Ephesians 5:15

Pastor David Craig, the Arkansas Louisiana Conference youth director, will join us as the guest speaker.

The event begins Friday evening, October 4 at 8:00pm and continues through Sunday morning, October 6 at 10:00am. The cost is $60 per person and includes lodging, meals, activities, guest speakers, and a t-shirt. Online Registration is strongly encouraged before September 20th. There will not be a Friday evening meal. Personal bedding is required. An adult sponsor (preferably one per gender) is required for each group in attendance to help with supervision.

More information can be found at www.arklatlt.weebly.com.

This conference is sponsored by the Arkansas Louisiana Conference Youth Ministries Department and the Pathfinder organization. If you have questions, contact Audra Kohltfarber, ArkLa TLT Coordinator 479-790-1898 or David Craig, ArkLa Youth Director 318-631-6240.